

Sobriety Gifts?

Where do you get those?

What are gifts of sobriety? When I was new I sure did not think it was a gift to be sober. I felt being sober was like being sentenced to jail. I had to stay in the sober lockup to make my life work but I sure didn't want to be condemned to what I was sure would be a boring life of not drinking. Slowly, ever so slowly, I started to change my attitude. First was just the fact that as I kept going to a meeting every day, I was staying sober. I didn't really understand how it worked but I knew it was working. It gave me my first gift and that was the glimmer of hope. Hope that AA may help me stay sober for another day.

My early AA meetings were not always as boring and depressing as I first thought. People would laugh at some of the worst stuff in other peoples' lives. I heard a man sharing a story of how he had lost his job, his family life was going to hell, and he was deep in debt and going to court for his latest DUI. But tonight all that didn't matter to him because he had to make sure he got to the meeting an hour early to make the coffee. If the coffee wasn't done he knew there would be a room full of angry alcoholics and they would be angry at him because he was the coffee guy. The room would bust out laughing. Even stranger the person telling the story would be laughing too. I would look around and think what a bunch of insensitive people. That is until I heard myself laughing. The gift to be able to laugh again and not take myself so seriously was given to me by the fellowship of AA.

The feeling that life was worth living without booze, not something to be survived, was a gift that came from this fellowship. Then the gift of the book - well, ok I actually bought the book but, the gift was between its blue covers. That is where I found the design for living. I was told early on that there is a big difference between just being sober and having a life of sobriety. The difference was the gifts you receive.

The gift of friendship in Alcoholics Anonymous was huge. My buddies who had gotten sober around the same time I did and with whom I had grown. The men, who with time in the program, would listen to me at coffee after the meeting and who understood how I felt because they had been where I was. I got a sponsor who with patience and love guided me through the steps. A strong friendship between both men and women developed for me in the fellowship of AA. The relationships of family and loved ones have been restored. Of course probably the most important gift for me is the relationship with my Higher Power; the strength and guiding force of my sobriety and all of my life. Only in Alcoholics Anonymous could I open myself up to this spiritual life.

There are many more gifts of sobriety than the few I have mentioned here. The longer I stay sober the greater the gifts are that I receive. Also the greater joy is in the ones I am privileged to pass on.

I once heard a story about a young man with just a few of days of sobriety. He came into an AA meeting and he was looking around the room searching for something. An old-timer approached him. "Can I help you find something?" The new man looked at him and said, "I was at a meeting last night and they were talking about some gifts of sobriety. After the meeting I asked a man where you get these gifts. He told me to come to this meeting tonight and I may be able to get some of the gifts. So I was just looking around for the table where you guys give these gifts away." The old-timer smiled and handed the young man a cup of coffee. "Have a seat." He said "Your gifts may not have gotten here yet. Just be a little patient. If you stick around you will start getting those gifts you heard about sooner than you think.

Gifts of the Program

I just found out that my mother had a seizure last night. She is in the hospital having tests to determine the cause. My sister gave me the news. She was in tears. I called the hospital and was able to talk with my step-father and offer my support. My sobriety date is February 3, 1994. I haven't had to take a drink today.

There are so many gifts that are a result of working the program of Alcoholics Anonymous. The most precious gift in my life is the gift of sobriety. I have found that from this gift many more blessings flow. I used to hate my mother for all of the broken bones and emotional abuse that I went through. My sister and I couldn't be in the same room without literally trying to rip each other's hair out. As a result of working the steps I have found my part in these conflicts and made my amends. Acts of forgiveness and service have built stronger relationships within my family – a family I moved 3,000 miles to get away from while I was still drinking.

Instead of taking a drink right now I have other alternatives that spring from the gift of sobriety. I can pray for my mother's health, for my acceptance of God's will, for strength and support. I can look for information and make phone calls to help ease my sister's suffering. I get to process the fact that my sister's greatest fear when my stepdad called (he couldn't even speak for several minutes because he was crying so much) was that she thought I had died. Imagine that...we had not been close for years. I can ask for help, I can keep from adding more stress to the situation, I can stay in the moment, and I can find many things to be grateful for.

I have had and lost many material things while I have been sober. I have lost friends and family members, gained and lost employment, been married and divorced. The thing that still amazes me most is living one day; living it sober and having the chance to be a part of all that life has to offer.

Far After Insanity There is Hope

When asked to write about the gifts of sobriety, I thought of all we each are given: the promises; faith in our Higher Powers; about fellowship and sobriety; our one purpose to stay sober and help others.

The 24 hour plan, keep it simple, to belong, to be one among many with a story . . . the experience of my drinking hopelessness, the strength given me by the people in the rooms of Alcoholics Anonymous. They share the Big Book, the fellowship and hope. I was given a purpose, an opportunity to give back, to pass on the happiness and joy and freedom; the release of a life of uselessness and isolation.

Because we are individuals, our gift to others, our link to one another, is our stories we can share. The gift is unique to each of us because of our individual experiences and that gift we can share with a newcomer. We can share the help our tutors of wisdom, our sponsors, gave to us. Thanks to the 12 Steps, 12 Traditions and our Concepts I have been given a design for living that helps me trudge the road.

Twelve Tips on Keeping Your Holiday Season Sober and Joyous

Holiday parties without liquid spirits may still seem a dreary prospect to new A.A.s. But many of us have enjoyed the happiest holidays of our lives sober—an idea we would never have dreamed of, wanted, or believed possible when drinking. Here are some tips for having an all-round ball without a drop of alcohol.

1 Line up extra A.A. activities for the holiday season. Arrange to take newcomers to meetings, answer the phones at a clubhouse or central office, speak, help with dishes, or visit the alcoholic ward at a hospital.

2 Be host to A.A. friends, especially newcomers. If you don't have a place where you can throw a formal party, take one person to a diner and spring for the coffee.

3 Keep your A.A. telephone list with you all the time. If a drinking urge or panic comes—postpone everything else until you've called an A.A.

4 Find out about the special holiday parties, meetings, or other celebrations given by groups in your area, and go. If you're timid, take someone newer than you are.

5 Skip any drinking occasion you are nervous about. Remember how clever you were at excuses when drinking? Now put the talent to good use. No office party is as important as saving your life.

6 If you have to go to a drinking party and can't take an A.A. with you, keep some candy handy.

7 Don't think you have to stay late. Plan in advance an "important date" you have to keep.

Worship in your own way.

9 Don't sit around brooding. Catch up on those books, museums, walks, and letters.

10 Don't start now getting worked up about all those holiday temptations. Remember—"one day at a time."

11 Enjoy the true beauty of holiday love and joy. Maybe you cannot give material gifts—but this year, you can give love.

12 "Having had a . . ." No need to spell out the Twelfth Step here, since you already know it.

A SOBER CHRISTMAS TO ALL!

The Night Before Christmas

'Twas the night before Christmas when all through the hall
Not a member was stirring, nor sought alcohol
Coffee and cookies were set out with care;
More AA members soon would be there
Each grateful member with not trace of vanity
Gave thanks to the Power that restores us to sanity

The leader of the meeting, like all who missions
Assigned Chapter Five and the Twelve Traditions
When outside the hall there arose such a clatter
We sprang from our chairs to see what was the matter
In parking a car some bumpers were hit
The man who did wrong did promptly admit

And so to our grateful eyes did appear
Our famous guest speaker, loved far and near

More rapid than eagles the members then came
He hugged them and kissed them and called them by name

Hi, Rose, yo, Johnny, God love you, Harry Jill and Claire and birthday boy Larry

Again we all settled, ready to share
The chair of the meeting led the Serenity Prayer
As dry leaves that before the wild hurricane fly
When they meet with an obstacle mount to the sky
So up to sobriety the embers they flew
With Twelve Steps to follow, Twelve Traditions too.

The Seventh Tradition inevitably came
The leader then called on our speaker by name
He wore his red suit, a fur cap but no tie
But soon let us know with a wink of his eye
That Christmas for us, we must learn to think
Means staying away from the very first drink

A bundle of joys he told us we'd find
"Read the Big Book for true peace of mind"
At the end of the meeting he started the prayer
And gave us the word: "continue to share"
But I heard him exclaim as he picked up his pack
"Don't ever forget to keep coming back!"

A Few AA Truisms

Directions to AA: Just go straight to hell and make a U-turn.

AA: Being a part of something is more important than being the center of attention.

AA is the only place where you can walk into a room full of strangers and reminisce.

AA: Look for a way in; not for a way out.

An alcoholic is someone who wants to be held while isolating.

The 12 Days of Sobriety

(Sung to the 12 Days of Christmas)

On my 1st day of sobriety,
my sponsor said to me,
Write a gratitude list.

On my 2nd day of sobriety,
my sponsor said to me,
Make two calls a day,
And write a gratitude list.

On my 3rd day of sobriety,
my sponsor said to me,
Take your third step,
Make two calls a day,
And write a gratitude list.

On my 4th day of sobriety,
my sponsor said to me,
Share your secrets,
Take your third step,
Make two calls a day,
And write a gratitude list.

On my 5th day of sobriety,
my sponsor said to me,
Say the Serenity Prayer,
Share your secrets,
Take your third step,
Make two calls a day,
And write a gratitude list.

On my 6th day of sobriety,
my sponsor said to me,
Look deep inside,
Say the Serenity Prayer,
Share your secrets,
Take your third step,
Make two calls a day,
And write a gratitude list.

On my 7th day of sobriety,
my sponsor said to me,
Meditate each day,
Look deep inside,
Say the Serenity Prayer,
Share your secrets,
Take your third step,
Make two calls a day,
And write a gratitude list.

On my 8th day of sobriety,
my sponsor said to me,
Make amends when you can,
Meditate each day,
Look deep inside,
Say the Serenity Prayer,
Share your secrets,
Take your third step,
Make two calls a day,
And write a gratitude list.

On my 9th day of sobriety,
my sponsor said to me,
90 meetings in 90 days,
Make amends when you can,
Meditate each day,
Look deep inside,
Say the Serenity Prayer,
Share your secrets,
Take your third step,
Make two calls a day,
And write a gratitude list.

On my 10th day of sobriety,
my sponsor said to me,
Keep working on yourself,
90 meetings in 90 days,
Make amends when you can,

Meditate each day,
Look deep inside,
Say the Serenity Prayer,
Share your secrets,
Take your third step,
Make two calls a day,
And write a gratitude list.

On my 11th day of sobriety,
my sponsor said to me,
God's in your life,
Keep working on yourself,
90 meetings in 90 days,
Make amends when you can,
Meditate each day,
Look deep inside,
Say the Serenity Prayer,
Share your secrets,
Take your third step,
Make two calls a day,
And write a gratitude list.

On my 12th day of sobriety,
my sponsor said to me,
Okay, start singing real fast!
Pass on the message,
God's in your life,
Keep working on yourself,
90 meetings in 90 days,
Make amends when you can,
Meditate each day,
Look deep inside,
Say the Serenity Prayer,
Share your secrets,
Take your third step,
Take two calls a day,
And write a gratitude list.

ARCHIVES

On December 24, 1941 the following ad was placed in the Palo Alto Times by Orvill Vern F.:

To any person having difficulty controlling their drinking—make good on your new year's resolution by joining Alcoholics Anonymous, P.O. Box 12, Palo Alto.

He had rented a room in the Lucy Stern Community Center but no one came in response to the ad. Fearing he would not be able to keep the rent until the meeting could support itself, Orvill asked his wife if he could hold the meeting at their home. She said no, but she would pay the rent until the meeting could support itself. She was not an alcoholic but she paid the rent for some time.

In December of 1938 the twelve steps were written. There were originally only six steps. Bill W. said that he thought he needed to write something the drunks couldn't wiggle out of. Page 292 of the Third Edition shows that the six steps were:

1. Complete deflation
2. Dependence and guidance from a Higher Power
3. Moral Inventory
4. Confession
5. Restitution
6. Continued work with other alcoholics.

PEACE

Be on the lookout for symptoms of inner peace! The hearts of a great many have already been exposed to inner peace and it is possible that people everywhere could come down with it in epidemic proportions.

Some signs to look for:

- A tendency to think and act spontaneously rather than on fears based on past experiences.
- A loss of interest in judging other people.
- A loss of interest in interpreting the actions of others.
- A loss of interest in conflict.
- A loss of the ability to worry. (This is a very serious symptom.)
- Frequent, overwhelming episodes of appreciation.
- Contented feelings of connectedness with others and nature.
- Frequent attacks of smiling.
- An increasing tendency to let things happen rather than make them happen.
- An increased susceptibility to the love offered by others as well as the uncontrollable urge to extend it.

Be forewarned! If you have all or even most of the above symptoms, please be advised that your condition may be too far advanced to turn back. If you are exposed to anyone exhibiting several of these symptoms, remain exposed at your own risk. This condition of inner peace is likely well into its infectious stage.

If things get too hectic over the holidays turn to the 2nd step.
It's AA's Sanity Claus.
